AIR - "JEANNETTE AND JEANNOT.

If you wish to make the pudding in which every one delights, Of six pretty new laid eggs, you must take the yolks and whites, Beat them well up in a basin till they thoroughly combine, And be sure you chop the suet up particularly fine.

Take a pound of well-stoned raisins, and a pound of currants dried, A pound of pounded sugar, and some candied peel beside,

Rub them all up well together with a pound of wheaten flour, And let them stand to settle for a quarter of

Then tie the mixture in a cloth, and put it in a pet,
Some people like the water cold and some efer it hot; But though I don't know which of these two plans I ought to praise, I know it ought to boil an hone for every pound it weighs.

O! if I were Queen of France, or still better Pope of Rome, I'd have a Christmas pudding every day I dined at home; All the world should have a piece, and if any did remain. Next morning for my breakfast I would have it fried again.

COMPRESSING THE WAIST.

In the personal recollections of Charlotte Elizabeth, the following passage occurs .-Her father came in while the stay-maker was spreading out her buckram, whalebone, &. "Pray, what are you going to do with the child ?"

"Going to fit her with a pair of stays." For what purpose ?!?

"To improve her figure; no young lady can grow up without them."

"I beg your pardon; young gentlemen grow up very well without them, and so may young ladies."

"Oh, you are mistaken. See what a stoop she has already; depend upon it, that girl will be both a dwarf and a cripple if we don't put her into the stays." "My child may be a cripple, ma'am, if such is God's will, but she shall be one of his His making, not ours." Therefore she grew up without headaches, or other "lady-like maladies." HOOTLAND'S GURMAN DITTERS, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now recommended by some of the most promanent members of the faculty as an article of much efficuer in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all methers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their leadth, as we know from experience the sulatary effect they have upon week systems."

More Evidence.

The "Philadelphia Saturday Gazette," the best family newspaper published in the United States, the editor ways of Dr Howfland's German Bitters.

"It is seldom at a we recommend what are termed Patent Medicines, to the souldence and patronage of our readers; and, therefore, here we resummend Br. Howfland's tierman Bitters, we wis it to be distinctly under stood that we are not speaking of the nostroms of the day, that are noised about for a brief period and then forgetten after they have done their guilty race of innedime, but of a medicine long established, noiversally prized, and which has not the hearty approval of the Faculty itself."

Evidence upon evidence has been received (like the foregoing) from all sections of the Union, the last three years, and the strongest testimony in its favou, is, that there is more of it used in the practice of the regular flavousiums of Philadelphia, than all other nostrums conduced, a fact that can easily be established, and fully proving that a scientific preparation will meet with their quart approval when presented even in this form.

That this medicine will care taken Complaint and Dyspenya, no one can donly, after using it as directed. It nots specifically upon the scennels and liver—it is prefundle to calonial in all billious discusses—the effect is immediate. They can be administered to Feinale or Infant with safety and reliable benefit, at any time. Dr Hoofand's German Bitters.
